eiter from a Clarksburg Man Who Was Over at Weston and Witnessed the Democratic Performance on Friday.

Editors Intelligencer:
Having just returned from a long contemplated trip to Weston, where I was a witness to the remarkable political seems which occurred in that town on Friday last, the last inst., during the Democratic County Convention, and learing that unless I undertook the difficult task of furnishing you a report of the proceedings the mass of Republican voters in West Virginia would forever remain in ignorance of the scenees and incidents that transpired at this perhaps the darkest Democratic convention that ever met in Lewis country. I have determined to give you a meagre description ined to give you a meagre description

f it. The convention was called for the purpose of nominating candidates for the ranous offices to be be voted for at the Ottober election, and to afford Mr. Mathews, their candidate for Governor, ly improvised platform, consisting of a dilapidated dry goods, and called for a motion to adjourn size die, which was in reality carried, but which he decided to have been lost. He then ordered the delegates to return to the Court House and make their nominations, and this in the face of the fact that no committee had been appointed or anything tending to even a temporary organization. Upon reassembling an ineffectual effort was made to restore order out of the chaos that had existed during the entire seasion, when the chairman at the top of his voice again called out the motion for adjournment size die, which he declared carried.

It being then about 5 o'clock, and too late for speaking, the committees decided to postpone the discussion until the next day. This unsatisfactory termination of affairs to some, and what others had labored for, leaves the Democratic candidates of Lewis county adrift in the sea of politics without a rudder, and with a mutianous crew on board. But the Democracy in one sense were fortunate, for they saved the massly was a subjected to on the following day before a smaller number.

H. Heat his confidence in the young had hat she not was not shaken one whit, and that she had his sympathy. Then, while the conhain the subject began to pronounce the sentence. The began to pronounce the sentence. The words he uttered and the ticking of the seal to predict we done was made in the build-ing. He said:

WHEREAS, Efforts put forth to awaken wrepentance have hitherto failed. The sealor of this church of this church of this church of this church of the sin of the conditions of the chaos that had exclude the said Mrs. Hobby from the church and all its previleges of Lewis county adrift in the sea of politics without a rudder, and with a mutianous possession with the season of the sealor of this church of this church to administer discipline, hereby, in the office of the sin of the church of the sin of WESTON, W. VA., Sept. 4th, 1876.

General Goff never won a more glo

ous victory for truth and right on the here. As you have been advised, the Democratic Convention broke up on Friday in a row and free fight; some think for the purpose of preventing Goff from speaking. But our gallant standard bearer was not to be silenced in this way. It was agreed that the two candidates for Governor should speak Saturday, beginning at 1 r. m. Mathews opened in a speech of two hours, and it was considered a fine effort only for the absurdities of which it was mainly composed. It was evident he had prepared his speech not expecting a reply. He made some assertions that even the most credulous refused to swallow, or if they did manage to get them down, soon came up. Mathews asserted what he believed was not generally taught to Democrats (so he himself said), namely, that the glorious old Democratic party had put down the rebellion, had given us our new State, our public free schools, freed the negroes and enfranchised him, etc. Although the court house was mainly filled with Democrats, it was very apparent that he was not believed. He also told some worn-out ancedotes that long ago had lost their point; asserted that if the Republicans came into power they would restore the registration law, test oaths, etc.; quoted from the InvELLIGENCER of 1807, in which you spoke of sending troops to the Greenbrier Valley to suppress a rising rebellion among Mathews and some of his reconstructed friends. He did not deny that they were creating trouble down there; said he supposed he had signed the petition to carry Greenbrier, Monroe and some adjoining counties into the old State; justified himself by saying that he was not allowed to vote, hold office, etc., and that he would rather live under the Czar of Russia or the King of the Fiji Islands. After doing his best to resurrect buried animosities and to work on the prejudices of the audience, he closed with a piteous appeal to bury the bloody shirt. He wanted to draw a veil over the past.

Gen. Goff commenced in his usual easy composed way, but gradually warmed to his work and gave the Democracy ic party in regard to giving us Free Schools, crushing the rebellion, &c. The mere mention was enough. The allusion to it in Goff's sarcastic manner caused to it in God's sarcastic manner caused such cheering as is seldom heard. Applause after applause greeted our youthful Governor as he poured hot shot, shell and chain-lightning into their panic stricken ranks. He sat down amid the wildest and most enthusiastic cheering from the crowded audience. Faint and leeble were the cheers that greeted Mathews. They seemed more like the wail of despairing men.

nany Democrats, who crowded around im and declared their intention to vote for him and the entire Republican ticket, some of whom had never voted a Republican ticket. Set old Lewis down on the Republican side. It is predicted that Mathews will never meet Goff again in a joint discussion. Democratic curses are loud and deep on the head of poor Woffield of the Democrat for hanging the mathematical state of the property of t gate on the other post, as he terms it. REPORTER.

In the prayer which followed, the pastor prayed that if the offending sister had sinned under mental darkness she might be undeceived. The prayer was also for the poor widow, who labored so faithfully to protect the loved one from hurt, and for the young lady that her suffering might consecrate her to God.

Mrs. Nichols and her daughter received hearty congratulations as they quit the hearty congratulations as they quit the Hayes and Wheeler Meeting at Rush Run.

At an early hour Saturday evening the largest assembly of citizens had congregated at the C. & P. R. R. depot in this place ever known on a similar occasion. According to a previous announcement the speakers were promptly on hand and received a cordinl greeting from the waiting throng. At half past seven the meeting twas called to order and Add. C. Lewis being introduced discoursed vigorously and eloquently on the parties, their candidates and the prominent issues of the campaign. Mr. Lewis is a young man of bright talent and has effort at this place beapeaks a brilliant future.

W. C. Ong, Prosecuting Attorney of Jefferson county, was presented next and in an earnest, and able address of one hour and a quarter fully sustained his reputation for forcible and effective discussion. An outline of these addresses to do them justice would require too much space, so suffice it to say they were strong and convincing and left no halting between two opinions. The majority of the voters in this end of the county have heretofore, in local, state and national refections, proved to be closely allied with heretofore, in local, state and nationa elections, proved to be closely allied with the interests of the Democratic party Prior to the St. Louis nominations mar here were readers of the Steubenville Gazette, the Democratic organ of Jefferson Gazette, the Democratic organ of Jefferson county, and through its revelations of the immorality of Tilden and hiff Tammany coadjutors, naturally conceived a strong dislike for the man who we were told-fruthessly slaughtered the venerable William Allen and cruelly mutilated his imbecile protege, the rag baby, at the Ohio State election last fall. But when its weekly sheet came into our midst after the Democratic letters of acceptance, covered with shameful praise of the infamous authors of those letters, then we accepted principle and the abandoned jewel of the Gazette, and have abjured all allegiance to it and the Democratic party henceforth. The Herald and the INTELLIGENCER now fill the Gazette's place on the farmer's table, and Hayes, lace on the farmer's table, and Hayes Wheeler and the cause of true reform brighten accordingly.
